

Bring the good old hallelujah, boys! we'll sing another song—
Sing it with that spirit that will start the world along—
Sing it as we used to sing it fifty thousand strong,
While we were marching through Georgia.
Hurrah! hurrah! bring the jubilee!
Hurrah! hurrah! the song that makes you free!
So we sang the chorus from Atlantic to the sea.
While we were marching through Georgia.
How the darkeys shouted when they heard the joyous sound!
How the turkeys gobbled which our commissary "found!"
How the sweet potatoes even started from the ground,
While we were marching through Georgia.
Yes, and there were Union men who wept with joyful tears,
When they saw the honored flag they had not seen for years;
Hardly could they be restrained from breaking forth in cheers,
While we were marching through Georgia.
"Sherman's dashing Yankee boys will never reach the coast,"
So the saucy rebels said, and was a handsome boast;
Had they not forgot, alas! to reckon with the host,
While we were marching through Georgia.
So we made a thoroughfare for freedom and her train,
Sixty miles in latitude—three hundred to the main;
Treason fled before us, for resistance was in vain,
While we were marching through Georgia.

The Hon. M. C. Alford.

It is rumored about town that as soon as lieutenant-governor M. C. Alford, who has gone to Memphis, Tenn., to attend the sound money convention, returns, he will announce himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Mr. Alford is an enthusiastic sound money man, whereas Messrs. Hardin and Clay are free silver men. His entry into the race would give many a Democrat a chance to vote, for with only Hardin and Clay to choose from, the sound money Democrats don't feel like making any part in the squabbling between two free silver men.

Mr. Alford is a very popular man, and knows the ins and outs of the game of politics very well. In the bluegrass where there is apparently much dissatisfaction with the two gentlemen now hustling for the nomination, he is sure to have a strong following.

It is hinted by some political prophets that Mr. Alford will take a conspicuous part in the sound money convention at Memphis, with the idea of rallying the sound money Democrats of Kentucky around his standard.—Lexington Leader.

Take to the Bushes.

Kentucky Democrats have the alternative of hanging together now or being hanged separately later on by Buccaneer Bill Bradley. With such a prospect ahead it isn't a very good time for a free fight at the forks of the silver road. Better take to the bushes in a body and blaze out a new marching ground.—Paducah News.

The Income Tax Unconstitutional.

The result of the litigation about the income tax has been reached in a way to excite regret. Thirteen judges heard it, the judge of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, who decided that the law was unconstitutional; the court of appeals of the District of Columbia, consisting of three eminent judges, who unanimously upheld the law; the supreme court of nine justices, of whom five voted to sustain the law, but one of the five changed his vote, and this changed vote was decisive, and thus the law is declared unconstitutional. This is a curious result of a very great and perhaps vital controversy upon such a question, involving such powers and having such consequences, that it should be decided by the vote of a changeling—of one who voted both ways. And when it is remembered that his last vote was wealth and corporations from taxes amounting to many millions of dollars annually, it becomes a matter of serious regret. Such a decision will hardly be held to be final.—Lexington Press-Transcript.

Gold Demanded for Goods.

One of the results of the free silver agitation, already apparent, is the action of the wholesale dealers and importers in sending bills of goods payable in gold. Several of our merchants have received these statements. Just now silver and gold are equal, but it shows that these far-sighted business men know that these metals will not be equal long if the free silver men have their way. Of course if our merchants have to pay gold for their goods they must sell for gold or put the prices high enough to cover the difference in the value of the two metals.—Winchester Democrat.

Rev. Capps in Jail.

At the preliminary trial of Rev. Mr. Capps, at Mt. Vernon, Ky., who brutally attempted the life of his wife a few days since by shooting her four times, bond was allowed in the sum of $3,000 to await the result of his wife's wounds. The prisoner was unable to make the bond and was remanded to jail.

On account of open threats at lynching, a guard has been placed at the jail. The prisoner has been attempting to use the plea of insanity, but with poor success. In the presence of officers he talks wildly, but when they are gone he appears as rational as he ever did.

ANTI-RHEUMATIC

$2—RING—$2

A Speedy and Permanent Cure

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Gout, Lumbago and all other diseases where a general warming, quickening, strengthening and equalization of the circulation is required. It will last for years, gives no shock, and but a mild, soothing sensation in wearing it. No waiting a long time for results. It acts quickly, generally the first week, more frequently the first day, and sometimes even in the first hour its curative powers are felt. It is inexpensive, harmless in operation, while simple in application, entailing neither discomfort or inconvenience. Though marvelous in the results it has achieved, its seeming simplicity has the effect of causing many to doubt its virtues. But in many instances you will feel a very pleasant sensation the moment it is properly adjusted to your little finger. In proof of the above statement I will refer you to the following most estimable ladies and gentlemen:

J. W. Sparks, W. H. Phillips,
Wm. Handy, E. Schneider,
Mrs. Morton Funk, Mrs. G. R. Taylor,
Sam Smith, J. W. Carroll,
Ben Spears, David Arnold.
And a hundred others if necessary. Many of these would not take $1,000 for their ring and be compelled to do without one. They cost only $2. No other ring will answer for the same purpose. No medicine, no bad taste in your mouth, but a nice ring, pleasing sensation, and relief of an excruciating pain. Old folks become young and vigorous.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about BACO-CURO. It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO-CURO. IT WILL NOTIFY YOU WHEN TO STOP and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An iron-clad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded. Price $1.00 per box or 3 boxes (30 days treatment and guaranteed cure), $2.50. For sale by all druggists or will be sent by mail upon receipt of price. SEND SIX TWO CENT STAMPS FOR SAMPLE BOX. Booklets and proofs free. Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.

St. PAUL, MINN., September 7, 1894.

DEAR SIR:—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago today I commenced using your preparation, and today I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours very truly, C. W. HORSICK.
